

PROMOTER PROFILE
DIGANT SHARMA

Entrepreneur · Social Architect · Nation-Building Strategist

Founder, Torus Group · Architect, SAKSHAM Mission · Co-Founder, Bangladesh Cultural Heritage Trust

Digant Sharma is an Indian entrepreneur whose two-decade career spans technology, agriculture, financial inclusion, digital governance, legal reform, cultural heritage, and large-scale CSR. As Founder, Chairman, or President of more than thirty organisations under the Torus Group, he has built an integrated ecosystem that has reached over 100,000 tribal and Banjara farmers in Maharashtra, mobilised multi-crore CSR commitments across six initiative streams, and conceptualised SAKSHAM — Sampoorna Aay Kar Suvidha Mission — a sovereign-scale national programme to formalise India's informal economy by 2029. RELEVANCE TO THE BANGLADESH HERITAGE RELAUNCH PROGRAMME

Mr Sharma's career evidences the five capabilities required for the proposed Bangladesh partnership: (i) CSR delivery at national scale, demonstrated by the 100,000-farmer programme; (ii) multi-faith cultural-heritage experience, demonstrated by the Buddhist Circuit Expedition and the Ayodhya Ram Leela CSR roles; (iii) Government engagement at the State and Central level, demonstrated by SAKSHAM presentations and three Government awards; (iv) cross-border capital mobilisation, demonstrated by the Hypnotherapy 100-country plan, the Sobhagya Yog Sadhna Mumbai-Stuttgart structure, and the Ophi Technologies India-Finland-Switzerland partnership; and (v) digital and technology backbone, demonstrated by GoIPress and Creaa Designs — directly applicable to the proposed twelve-portal digital platform supporting the Bangladesh programme.
